Steppingblocks

THIRTEEN HOW THE PANDEMIC HAUNTS THE JOB MARKET

San Francisco study.

20% of business travel may not ever return.

Over 500K breaches occurred during video conferencing Deloitte Reports need for cybersecurity, yet there are nearly 465,000 unfilled cyber jobs across the nation.

The rise of remote work during the pandemic increases the 2.4 million women left the workforce compared to only 1.8 million men.

2.4MM

Executives plan to reduce office space by 30%

Forecasting a grim future for restaurants, retail and public transportation in downtown areas.

McKinsey & Company

industry has an unemployment rate of 9%.

The leisure and hospitality

We face a of 1.1 million

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics

nursing shortage

2-5X

Ecommerce grew 2-5X faster in 2020 than before the pandemic.

The warehouse industry had a record 490,000 job openings in July, while the trucking industry

And in 2020, the manufacturing industry lost 578,000 jobs.

has a shortage of 80,000 drivers.

The U.S. Bureau of Labor

Statistics projects the need for expansion to avoid a shortage.

Our supply chain shortage is super scary

25% more workers may need to

It's expected that most growth switch occupations.

20-25%

Of the workforce could work changing the landscape of how from home, completely

Hawaii's travel economy suffered a 60% decline U.S. Travel Association employers operate from salaries to insurance to perks.

Orders for industrial robots surged 20% YOY

Supply Chain Dive

Steppingblocks

Visit blog.steppingblocks.com for sources to all 13 stats and information on how to evaluate your own post-covid future.